

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 1

Each sentence has words in it that sound the same.
Delete the incorrect word in every sentence.

1. I do not know now your name.
2. Do you live over their there.
3. The weather whether has been very good this month.
4. I am so untidy and I could do with a made maid.
5. My shed is made of steal steel.
6. Another name for a water jug is a pitcher picture.
7. Please save your work on to a floppy disc disk.
8. My mother was born and bred bread in this village
9. Have you read red this book before.
10. Do you know no where were Sam has gone.
11. The children may steel steal your purse.
12. Butter is made maid from milk.
13. In England people always spread butter or margarine on bred bread.
14. The sun's raise rays can burn us in the summer.
15. Brides often cover their there face with a vale veil.
16. When children are ill they look vary very pail pale.
17. Some dogs have their there tales tails removed.
18. If you have a whole hole in a bucket the water will leak out.
19. In the summer we eat a lot of fruit buries berries for dessert.
20. A leak leek is a vegetable and not a fruit.
21. He praise prays every day that he will recover and be well again.
22. This top is too lose loose now that I am thinner.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 2

Each sentence has words in it that sound the same.

Delete the incorrect word in every sentence.

1. Please put your you're coat over there.
2. Whose who's coming to the fireworks tonight.
3. My teacher is away because she has a slipped disk disc.
4. The children have not had there their vaccinations.
5. The name for a female sheep is a ewe you.
6. There their music is making an awful racquet racket.
7. The Pope lives in Roam Rome.
8. In winter the whether weather can be very cold.
9. A post-box is always a red read colour.
10. They're there always late on a Monday
11. Please put my picture pitcher up on the wall.
12. In order to play tennis you need a racquet racket.
13. I prefer the plain plane curtains to the flowered ones.
14. Susie has had her Teddy bear bare since she was born.
15. Prince William is air heir to the throne.
16. I am starting a new job next week weak at the supermarket.
17. I have been bean to the park today to take my dog for a walk.
18. Some children broke a pain pane of glass in my greenhouse with their football.
19. I don't know weather whether to wear my black shoes with these trousers.
20. The lounge looks very bare bear without any curtains at the window.
21. The money goes down a shoot chute in the large shop.
22. I knead need your consent before I can operate on you.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 3

Each sentence has words in it that sound the same.

Delete the incorrect word in every sentence.

1. You must always be very quite quiet in the library.
2. When Shanara starts school she will have to where wear a uniform.
3. The doctor will sea see you in two hours time.
4. It will hurt is the bee be stings you.
5. Please will you sit by bye my side at the meeting?
6. You must keep that jar the write right way up.
7. A witch which will cast a spell on you if you are bad.
8. Please will you right write your name in capital letters?
9. The waves are very large today in the see sea.
10. The fire is burning in the grate great.
11. It is knot not right that you should have to stay in tonight.
12. My eyes are hurting and I cannot see sea very well.
13. Do you know witch which way to go to get to the bank?
14. There is always a lot of waist waste when I make I cut up meat.
15. That is a brilliant feet feat of engineering.
16. We are having a summer fare fair at the school in June.
17. The children did not rap wrap on the door so I did not hear them.
18. I knead need to see what I weigh after eating so much food.
19. The policeman new knew that I had been bean speeding when he stopped me.
20. Lois is feeling very weak week after her hip operation.
21. The bus driver took our fair fare for the journey.
22. The rabbit has very long clause claws.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 4

Each sentence has words in it that sound the same.
Delete the incorrect word in every sentence.

1. Over their there is my small car.
2. This is the mane main road.
3. This piece of glass is for the window pain pane.
4. I use this brush to comb my hair hare.
5. This road leads to too the coal mine.
6. How many pears pairs of socks do you have?
7. I have forgotten to bring my floppy disc disk.
8. There are two too many people in this class.
9. This cake would look better in two tiers tears.
10. It's no good if you don't want to two go tonight.
11. I would like to give you my advice advise.
12. The teacher advised adviced me to re-take my exam.
13. A hair hare is larger than a rabbit.
14. Kyle loves the plane plain journey when we go on holiday abroad.
15. I can hear the rain rein beating on the roof.
16. Tom grew the biggest runner bean been in the gardening competition.
17. Will you please come here hear and put your shoes on?
18. The weather whether was hot and sunny on our holiday in Spain.
19. I am pumping air heir into the balloons for Toby's birthday party.
20. I have a really bad pane pain in my knee when I walk.
21. Where have you put your pear pair of gloves?
22. We need to join a doctor's practise practice near to where we live.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 5

Each sentence has words in it that sound the same.

Delete the incorrect word in every sentence.

1. Please put your you're coat over there.
2. Whose who's coming to the fireworks tonight.
3. My teacher is away because she has a slipped disk disc.
4. The children have not had there their vaccinations.
5. The name for a female sheep is a ewe you.
6. Their music is making an awful racquet racket.
7. My dog likes to rome roam in the woods all day.
8. In winter the whether weather can be very cold.
9. A post-box is always a red read colour.
10. They're there always late on a Monday
11. Please put my picture pitcher up on the wall.
12. In order to play tennis you need a racquet racket.
13. Your you're photographs are ready to be collected from the shop.
14. I knew that it was going to rein rain when I pegged out my washing.
15. I have bought some very plane plain material.
16. Please will you put this pitcher picture up on the wall for me?
17. I knead need to go to the shops to buy some milk.
18. I have put your you're shoes over there so that we don't fall over them.
19. My CD disk disc has got stuck in my CD player in my car.
20. The computer is to too heavy for me to carry, I will need some help.
21. I have just moan mown the grass and now I am going to sit and read my book.
22. I am putting cream mat matt paint onto the hall walls.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 6

Each sentence has words in it that sound the same.
Delete the incorrect word in every sentence.

1. The plain plane is late taking off.
2. I am saving this to a disc disk.
3. We keep our water in a picture pitcher.
4. I am making choux shoe pastry.
5. I don't like going to their there parties.
6. Please help me to choose witch which job to take.
7. The plain plane is where people go to walk their dogs.
8. I am trying to shed sum some weight.
9. This dress is lose loose on me now.
10. Whose who's going to come to the shops with me?
11. Please will you help me to clothe cloth the children.
12. Did Lucy say by bye to her teacher today?
13. My boyfriend whined wined and dined me last night at Port Solent.
14. There is a boy buoy in the sea to stop the ships from crashing into the rocks.
15. I am not aloud allowed to stay out too late tonight
16. The mattress cover kneads needs to be taut on the mattress.
17. We want a gas fire but we need a flu flue in our chimney.
18. This material phrase frays a lot every time I wash it.
19. It is about time that they band banned football in our street.
20. My father is a bell wringer ringer.
21. The local shop is having a sail sale next week.
22. The children are being taut taught sums at school.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 7

Each sentence has words in it that sound the same.

Delete the incorrect word in every sentence.

1. The rein rain in pouring down and all the roads are flooded.
2. Whose who's left there their coat on this chair?
3. It is really great grate that you are coming to help me.
4. Did you hear the lion groan grown this morning at the zoo?
5. Do you know who's whose put their cup on the chair?
6. It is no good you crying now it is to too late.
7. It is grate great news that you can come to my party too.
8. I have not maid made my bed yet and it is getting late.
9. My new coat is too big for me to ware wear.
10. We are being hampered by bye the bad weather.
11. The old man had groan grown a large moustache.
12. You must not rome roam the streets by yourself.
13. Did I see you buying some meet meat at the butcher's shop?
14. I would like to bye buy a tumble dryer.
15. My son loves to eat the yoke yolk of an egg.
16. The children love to get lost in the maize maze at Hampton Court.
17. I do wish you would not medal meddle in my affairs.
18. The church has a very long isle aisle to walk up.
19. I think that her babies berth birth is imminent.
20. That is a navel naval tie that you have just bought at the sale.
21. One of our sales sails is broken.
22. I don't know no if now is the right time to tell him.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 8

Each sentence has words in it that sound the same.

Delete the incorrect word in every sentence.

1. I need to sew sow these seeds in the back garden
2. Please do not make a big seen scene because people are looking at us.
3. Did you hear the awful racquet racket last night outside?
4. The farmer has lost his best ewe you and he cannot find her.
5. I like staying at a posh hotel because the made maid tidies our room.
6. The young gymnast performed a wonderful feet feat for us to watch.
7. We have a dove coat cote in our hour garden.
8. The little boy is going to drawer draw a picture of his friend.
9. My husband has moan mown our front lawn today.
10. Do you know now how many buoys boys there are in that busy river?
11. We have a very deep whale well in our back garden.
12. Please come hear here so that you can hear me properly.
13. I think I may have slipped a disk disc in my back moving the table.
14. We need knead to put all the gloves into pairs.
15. Where did you put all the male mail that was delivered today?
16. Did you see where the train stopped on root route to Glasgow?
17. Some people don't like eating ice crème cream.
18. Would you like to have a peek peak at the baby?
19. Thomas is learning to peddle pedal his bicycle.
20. Samantha is going to the gym every day to build up her muscles mussels.
21. We are going to billed build a wall in our garden.
22. We are going to fit some new lights on our sealing ceiling.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 9

Each sentence has words in it that sound the same.

Delete the incorrect word in every sentence.

1. There are to too many people coming to my party.
2. Please help me to put my clothes away in the draw drawer.
3. A buoy boy is used as a marker in the water.
4. Did you see my mother nit knit your jumper?
5. I would like to bee be an actress when I leave school.
6. In the shops they keep all the money in a teal till.
7. Whose who's bringing Toby to the party today?
8. There are one won or two people coming to my house later.
9. The boy was very quick and he one won the race.
10. Please will you meet meat Thomas today for me?
11. I do not know whose who's shoes these are.
12. The children eight ate up all their lunch today.
13. Ashraf is looking very pail pale today.
14. The cat has got very dirty pause paws.
15. Do you think that the tea is brood brewed now?
16. I would like to build billed a garage for my car.
17. Is it safe to eat that red bury berry off the tree?
18. I like to have mustered mustard on my ham sandwiches.
19. My daughter does not have very much patients patience at the moment.
20. I think Samuel is just going through a faze phase at the moment.
21. I cannot hear the music because it is quite quiet.
22. I won a prize in a drawer draw at the school.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 10

Each sentence has words in it that sound the same.

Delete the incorrect word in every sentence.

1. The ball went quickly down the shoot chute.
2. They're there all coming to tea tomorrow.
3. My little boy pretends to shoot chute me with his toy gun.
4. Please don't stair stare at me?
5. A hair hare is an animal that is similar to a rabbit.
6. The child is unwell and will tyre tire easily.
7. Please will you fax facts me the details as soon as possible.
8. This room looks bare bear with everything boxed up.
9. He doesn't know whether weather to go today.
10. Please will you where wear your coat as it is cold outside today.
11. Wear where did you put my glasses?
12. I knead need a nice flower to wear as a buttonhole.
13. I am making a fruit cake and putting a lot of currants currents in it.
14. There is a terrible draft draught with the door open.
15. I would love some peace piece and quiet today.
16. The next seen scene is the one in the shopping centre.
17. The children have broken a pain pane of glass in the greenhouse.
18. I would like to go for a walk on the more moor.
19. Is there their still a mail male train every night?
20. I have a really bad pane pain in my ears and I cannot hear properly.
21. It's no good I will not be able to tie the knot taught taut enough.
22. Please will you cheque check this signature for me?

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 11

Each sentence has words in it that sound the same.

Delete the incorrect word in every sentence.

1. This roast meat meet is not cooked properly.
2. The naughty children have left there their shoes in the garden.
3. I don't think they're there going out today to the shopping centre.
4. The little boy buoy loves his teddy bear.
5. This unsettled whether weather is not very nice today.
6. There is a leek leak in the copper pipe.
7. We could add a leak leek to our beef stew.
8. The young children have gone of off to first school.
9. I would like sum some more Indian tea please.
10. It is really grate great to see such a large television screen.
11. We will stand the new gas fire in the great grate.
12. A tea tee is used when you play golf on a golf course.
13. I have bean been looking through my photographs all day.
14. That is a very vary large sum of money to invest.
15. This house has a very big seller cellar wear where we keep our wine.
16. I have bought brought your tea up to the bedroom for you.
17. There is a heard herd of cows in the field near the college.
18. I have given the assistant a peace piece off of my mind.
19. We need to buy some more flower flour to make the cakes.
20. Did you hear that I had herd heard from the bank?
21. We are not allowed aloud to play at the park.
22. I would like to climb threw through the railings.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 12

Each sentence has words in it that sound the same.

Delete the incorrect word in every sentence.

1. I bought a bale bail of straw for my pet rabbit.
2. The little girl has been bean to the doctors this morning.
3. The opposite of female is mail male.
4. The postman delivers our male mail.
5. The see sea is very rough today.
6. Please put that bare bear over there in the window.
7. The police have let my friend out on bale bail.
8. Please turn the hot tap off because it is a waste waist of water.
9. I am trying to loose lose weight to get a smaller waist.
10. We get chocolate from a cocoa been bean.
11. My brother does not urn earn very much money.
12. I cannot sea see without my glasses.
13. The tire tyre on your bicycle has a puncture.
14. Do you know wear where their parents have gone?
15. That little baby looks blew blue with cold.
16. This is a mail male toilet and the female toilet is over there.
17. The currant current in the river is very strong today.
18. I am busy trying to arrange a bank lone loan.
19. The children would like to go to the beech beach tomorrow.
20. The workman is working at the building sight site.
21. I am writing a draught draft letter and would like you to check it for me.
22. The house we are buying has a large seller cellar.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 13

Each sentence has words in it that sound the same.
Delete the incorrect word in every sentence.

1. My school friend has now got grey hare hair.
2. Do you know whose who's chocolate biscuits these are?
3. Whose who's left the front door open.
4. I need to go out to buy some brown bred bread.
5. The thick rope is very taught taut.
6. The small children were all taut taught at infant school today.
7. We need a short coffee brake break.
8. I would like to meat meet your kind mother.
9. I prefer my red cheese to be coarse course when it is grated.
10. The lounge walls could do with a cote coat of paint.
11. The wind blue blew my red balloon away.
12. The golf coarse course was difficult to get round today.
13. It would help Emily if she read red aloud.
14. The doctor gave me his advise advice.
15. My teddy bear has a lose loose eye.
16. We aloud allowed our son to cycle to school.
17. He has groan grown into a nice young man.
18. They herd heard all the noise in the night.
19. The monkey eight ate all the chocolate.
20. The fairy ferry is late arriving at the port.
21. We have planted a fur fir tree in the front garden.
22. Our back garden looks very baron barren.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 14

Each sentence has words in it that sound the same.

Delete the incorrect word in every sentence.

1. Do you know the weight wait of the cake?
2. My friend is called Sue which witch is short for Susan.
3. You will fall off the chair if you ewe don't sit still.
4. I am enrolling onto a French coarse course.
5. Please be quite quiet because the baby is asleep.
6. I would like you to weight wait here for me.
7. The child blue blew out the candles on the birthday cake.
8. The baker is busy making the bred bread.
9. This little village is wear where they made the film.
10. Do you need any help to write right your letter?
11. I think you have put too much flower flour in this cake.
12. I am going to sew sue the company and get some money from them.
13. I would like you to put you're your rubbish in the bin.
14. I could not brooch broach the subject this morning.
15. My friend plays a base bass guitar.
16. The cow mood mooed at the children.
17. We got lots of presence presents for our birthday.
18. It is whys wise to save some money from your pay.
19. My grandfather was a coal minor miner.
20. I did not like the manor manner of the assistant.
21. This jumper has gone all wholly holey.
22. My neighbour goes course coarse fishing every Sunday.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 15

Each sentence has words in it that sound the same.
Delete the incorrect word in every sentence.

1. It is now time two to take a brake break.
2. The dear deer can be scene seen if you walk quietly.
3. They do not want to ware wear there their coats.
4. The doves live in a cote coat.
5. We have got reads needs growing.
6. The tied tide is coming in vary very quickly
7. Please will you ware wear your boots out in the rain reign
8. Tomorrow we are going too to have plaice place and chips for hour our tea
9. I have maid made a trifle for hour our tea
10. We go too to bed with our teddy bares bears
11. You need knead to too close the door properly
12. You must comb you're your hare hair before you go too to school
13. Please will you tell me whose who's work you ewe have copied.
14. I have put your you're coat over their there on the bed.
15. Please will you tidy out your you're draw drawer.
16. The disc disk is full know now.
17. The whether weather is not very good for this time off of year.
18. I can't see sea where wear you have put the phone bill.
19. There is a tied tide mark on the bath.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 16

Each sentence has words in it that sound the same.
Delete the incorrect word in every sentence.

1. The plain plane is late taking off of.
2. I am saving this to a disc disk.
3. There is a thick mist missed this morning.
4. We keep our water in a picture pitcher.
5. I am making choux shoe pastry.
6. I don't like going to their there parties.
7. I would like to have a maid made to do my housework.
8. I think I put their there coat over their there.
9. I do not know no what the weather whether will be like tomorrow.
10. My seem seam has come open on my trousers.
11. The which witch is not a very nice person.
12. The mayor mare is coming to open our fate fete today.
13. It is the start of the new knew year.
14. I am going to arrange a loan lone.
15. If you keep looking in the mirror you are vein vain.
16. This jug does not pore pour very well.
17. I think I have mist missed my bus.
18. The children are bored board today.
19. I think it is going to rein rain later.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 17

Each sentence has words in it that sound the same.

Delete the incorrect word in every sentence.

1. The window pain pane kneads needs cleaning.
2. We are buying a knew new three piece sweet suite.
3. If I play this game it will tyre tire me out.
4. I have a pane pain in my wrist.
5. The lorry kneads needs a new tyre tire.
6. Please bee be careful when ewe you eat that suite sweet.
7. Please will you pay my fair fare because I have now no money on me?
8. It is know now time four for a coffee brake break.
9. Thomas's school are holding a Christmas Fair fare.
10. Would you like a suite sweet after your meal?
11. This cream will help your arm to heal heel up.
12. I knead need to two see your driving licence.
13. The tyre tire has burst on my car.
14. You must be fare fair and not give more too to Toby.
15. You have a whole hole in the heel heal of that sock you are putting on.
16. In order to too make bred bread you must knead need the dough.
17. Please will you where wear your black boots four for me today.
18. I don't think that your you're listening to too what I am saying.
19. Who's whose been outside and left the door open?

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 18

Each sentence has words in it that sound the same.
Delete the incorrect word in every sentence.

1. A bed bug is a type of might mite.
2. A pair pear is a type off of fruit.
3. The child has vary very fair fayre hair.
4. This book is starting too to boar bore me.
5. At Christmas time there is lots off of extra male mail.
6. Tom has had flu and is looking very pail pale.
7. I bought too two dresses in a sale sail.
8. In the country you often have too to climb over a stile style.
9. Lucy will be bee four fore next week.
10. We always have to weight wait a long time too to sea see our doctor.
11. I have just purchased some flee flea spray four for my cat.
12. If it is windy tomorrow we are going four for a sail sale.
13. I might mite be late on Saturday morning mourning.
14. A carpenter works with pieces of would wood.
15. It was getting vary very dark and starting too to rein rain.
16. There is a leak leek in the pipe under our bath.
17. I would value your you're advise advice.
18. Would you like a pair pear four for your lunch today?

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 19

Each sentence has words in it that sound the same.

Delete the incorrect word in every sentence.

1. Every weak week we have two to empty hour our dustbins.
2. In the woods near us we often sea see dear deer.
3. Please be bee careful that you do knot not brake break that ornament.
4. That writing is sew so faint feint that I cannot read it.
5. My sister scent sent me some sum lovely perfume for Christmas.
6. I do not like the smell of meet meat at the butcher's shop.
7. The mane main road is vary very busy tonight.
8. The sky has gone vary very dark because it is going to rain rein.
9. In the evenings I like too to sit and sew sow.
10. I am late because I mist missed my train.
11. If you rest that leg will heel heal properly.
12. When I was driving along the road I past passed Suzy on her bike.
13. That sent scent that you are wearing smells lovely.
14. It is so hot today that I think I am going to faint feint.
15. When grooming a horse you must spend time on its mane main.
16. There is a lot of missed mist tonight.
17. They are opening a new dental practise practice next door.
18. Please will you buy me a pear pair of off gloves?

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 20

Each sentence has words in it that sound the same.
Delete the incorrect word in every sentence.

1. Have you sent scent the parcel too to me?
2. Sophie road rode her new bicycle to too school.
3. Please will you check cheque my front break brake.
4. I am eating a pear pair from the tree in our garden.
5. I do wish that you children would bee be quiet.
6. I like the smell of your sent scent.
7. This road rode is very long.
8. I am writing you a cheque check.
9. I knead need a new front break brake on my bicycle.
10. I have just been bean stung bye by a bee be.
11. I cannot see sea any sign of the boys buoys
12. I am having a pear pair of shoes made too to match my outfit.
13. The harbour has lots of buoys boys to two guide the ships.
14. Please be careful that you do not brake break the ornament.
15. Please will you buy bye me some sum scent sent from the shops?
16. The see sea is very rough today as it is vary very windy.
17. My knee is very saw sore where wear I fell down earlier.
18. Please will you meat meet me off of the train?
19. The old lady was having a good mown moan today at the shops.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 21

Each sentence has words in it that sound the same.

Delete the incorrect word in every sentence.

1. The tire tyre on you're your bicycle has a puncture.
2. Do you know now wear where there their parents have gone?
3. That little baby looks blew blue with cold.
4. This is a mail male toilet and the female toilet is over their there.
5. The currant current in the river is very strong today.
6. I am busy trying to two arrange a bank lone loan.
7. The children wood would like to too go to the beech beach tomorrow.
8. The workman is working at the building sight site.
9. I am writing a draught draft letter and would wood like you to cheque check it for four me.
10. It wood would help Emily if she read red allowed aloud.
11. The doctor gave me his advise advice and I will not knot go.
12. My teddy bare bear has a lose loose eye.

Using each of the words, write your own sentence and include one word in each.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 22

Delete the incorrect words in every sentence and underline the nouns.

1. Is there their still a mail male train every night?
2. I have a really bad pane pain in my ears and I cannot here hear properly.
3. Its It's no good I will not knot be able to tie the knot not taught taut enough.
4. Please will you cheque check this signature for four me?
5. I have bean been looking threw through my photographs all day.
6. That is a very vary large some sum of money to invest.
7. This house has a very vary big seller cellar wear where we keep our wine.
8. I have bought brought you're your tea up to the bedroom for four you.
9. There they're a heard herd of cows in the field near the college.
10. I have given the assistant a peace piece off of my mind.
11. We knead need to by buy sum some more flower flour to make the cakes.
12. Did you here hear that I had herd heard from the bank?

Using each of the words, write your own sentence and include one word in each.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 23

Delete the incorrect word/s in every sentence.

1. I cannot here hear the music because it is too to quite quiet.
2. I am making a fruit cake and putting a lot of currants currents in it.
3. There is a terrible draft draught with the door open.
4. I wood would love sum some peace piece and quite quiet today.
5. The next seen scene is the won one in the shopping centre.
6. The children have broken a pain pane of off glass in the greenhouse.
7. I wood would like to go four for a walk on the more moor.

Using each of the words, write your own sentence and include one word in each.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 24

Delete the incorrect word in every sentence and underline the nouns.

Would you ewe like to have a peek peak at the baby?

Thomas is learning to two peddle pedal his bicycle.

Samantha is going to too the gym every day to build up her muscles mussels.

He praise prays every day that he will recover and be well again.

Ashraf is looking very pail pale today.

The cat has got vary very dirty pause paws.

Do you think that the tee tea is brood brewed now?

I would wood like to build billed a garage for my car.

Is it safe to eat that red bury berry off of the tree?

I like to have mustered mustard on my ham sandwiches.

My daughter does not have very much patients patience at the moment.

I think Samuel is just going threw through a faze phase at the moment.

Using each of the words, write your own sentence and include one word in each.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 25

Delete the incorrect word/s in every sentence and underline the verbs.

Wear where have you put your pear pair of gloves?

Now we have cut down all the trees the garden is looking vary very baron barren.

It is about time that they band banned football in our street.

My father is a bell wringer ringer.

The local shop is having a sail sale next week weak.

I wood would like to bye buy a tumble drier dryer.

My son loves to eat the yoke yolk of an egg.

The children love to get lost in the maize maze at Hampton Court.

I do wish you would wood not knot medal meddle in my affairs.

The church has a very vary long isle aisle to walk up.

I think that her babies berth birth is immanent imminent.

That is a navel naval tie that you have just bought brought at the sail sale.

Using each of the words, write your own sentence and include one word in each.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 26

Delete the incorrect word/s in every sentence and underline the nouns.

I do not know now your name.

Do you live over their there.

The weather whether has been very good this month.

I am so untidy and I could do with a made maid.

My shed is made of steal steel.

Another name for a water jug is a pitcher picture.

Please save your work on to a floppy disc disk.

My mother was born and bred bread in this village

Have you read red this book before.

Do you know no where were Sam has gone.

The children may steel steal your purse.

Butter is made maid from milk.

Using one of the verbs from every sentence write your own sentences

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 27

Delete the incorrect word/s in every sentence and underline the nouns.

Please put your you're coat over there their.

Whose who's coming to the fireworks tonight.

My teacher is away because she has a slipped disk disc.

The children have not had there their vaccinations.

The name for a female sheep is a ewe you.

There their music is making an awful racquet racket.

The Pope lives in Roam Rome.

In winter the whether weather can be very cold.

A post-box is always a red read colour.

They're there always late on a Monday

Please put my picture pitcher up on the wall.

In order to play tennis you need a racquet racket.

Using each of the words, write your own sentence and include one word in each.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 28

Delete the incorrect word/s in every sentence and underline the verbs.

You must always be bee very quite quiet in the library.

When Shanara starts school she will have to where wear a uniform.

The doctor will sea see you in two too hours time.

It will hurt is the bee be stings you.

Please will you sit by bye my side at the meeting?

You must keep that jar the write right way up.

A witch which will cast a spell on you if you are bad.

Please will you right write your name in capital letters

The waves are very large today in the see sea.

The fire is burning in the grate great.

It is knot not right write that you should stay in tonight.

My eyes are hurting and I cannot see sea very well.

Using each of the words, write your own sentence and include one word in each.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 29

Delete the incorrect word/s in every sentence and underline the nouns.

Over their there is my small car.

This is the mane main road.

This piece of glass is for four the window pain pane.

I use this brush to comb my hair hare.

This road leads to too the coal mine.

How many pears pairs of socks do you have?

I have forgotten to too bring my floppy disc disk.

There are two too many people in this class.

This cake would look better in too two tiers tears.

Its It's no good if you don't want to two go tonight.

I would like to give you my advice advise.

The teacher advised adviced me to re-do my exam.

Using one of the verbs from every sentence write your own sentences.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 30

Delete the incorrect word/s in every sentence and underline the nouns.

Please put your you're coat over there their.

Whose who's coming to too the fireworks tonight.

My teacher is away because she has a slipped disk disc.

The children have not had there their vaccinations.

The name for four a female sheep is a ewe you.

There their music is making an awful racquet racket.

My dog likes to rome roam in the woods all day.

In winter the whether weather can be very cold.

A post-box is always a red read colour.

They're there always late on a Monday

Please put my picture pitcher up on the wall.

In order to too play tennis you need a racquet racket.

Using one of the nouns from each sentence write your own sentences.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 31

Delete the incorrect word/s in every sentence and underline the verbs.

The plain plane is late taking off of.

I am saving this too to a disc disk.

We keep our hour water in a picture pitcher.

I am making choux shoe pastry.

I don't like going to two their there parties.

Please help me to too chose choose witch which job to two take.

The plain plane is where wear people go to too walk there their dogs.

I am trying too to shed sum some weight wait.

This dress is lose loose on me now know.

Whose who's going to two come to two the shops with me?

Please will you ewe help me to too clothe cloth the children.

Did Lucy say by bye to two her teacher today?

Write your own sentence using each of the verbs used above.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 32

Delete the incorrect word/s in every sentence and underline the verbs.

The rein rain in pouring down and all the roads are flooded.

Whose who's left there their cote coat on this chair?

It is really great grate that you are coming to too help me.

Did you ewe here hear the lion groan grown this morning at the zoo?

Do you know now who's whose put there their cup on the chair?

It is no know good you crying now know it is to too late.

It is grate great news that you can come to my party to too.

I have not knot maid made my bed yet and it is getting late.

My cote coat is now know to too big for me to ware wear.

We are being hampered by bye the bad whether weather.

The old man had groan grown a large moustache.

You must not knot rome roam the streets by yourself.

Did I see sea you buying some sum meet meat at the butcher's shop?

Write one sentence for every correct word.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 33

Delete the incorrect word/s in every sentence and underline the adjectives.

I need knead to sew sow these seeds in the back garden

Please do not knot make a big seen scene because people are looking at us.

Did you here hear the awful racquet racket last night outside?

The farmer has lost his best ewe you and he cannot sea see her here hear.

I like staying at a posh hotel because the made maid tidies hour our room.

The young gymnast performed a wonderful feet feat for us to watch.

We have a dove coat cote in our hour garden.

The little boy is going to drawer draw a pitcher picture of his friend.

My husband has moan mown our hour front lawn today.

Do you know now how many buoys boys there are in that busy river?

We have a very deep whale well in our hour back garden.

Sum some people don't like eating ice crème cream.

Write one sentence for each correct word.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 34

EXERCISE 28

Delete the incorrect word/s in every sentence and underline the verbs.

There are to too many people coming to two my party.

Please help me two to put my clothes away in the draw drawer.

A buoy boy is used as a marker in the water.

Did you sea see my mother nit knit you're your jumper?

I would like to bee be an actress when I leave school.

In the shops they keep all the money in a teal till.

Whose who's bringing Toby to the party today?

There are one won or too two people coming to my house later.

The boy buoy was very quick and he one won the race.

Please will you meet meat Thomas today for me?

I do knot not now know whose who's shoes these are.

The children eight ate up all there their lunch today.

Write one sentence for each correct word.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 35

Delete the incorrect word/s in every sentence and underline the verbs.

The ball went quickly down the shoot chute

They're there all coming to tee tea tomorrow.

My little boy pretends to shoot chute me with his toy gun.

Please don't stair stare at me?

A hair hare is an animal that is similar to a rabbit.

The child is unwell and will tyre tire easily.

Please will you fax facts me the details as soon as possible.

This room looks bare bear with everything boxed up.

He doesn't know whether weather to go today.

Please will you where wear your coat as it is cold outside today.

Wear where did you put my glasses?

I knead need a nice flour flower to wear where as a buttonhole.

Using each of the words, write your own sentence and include one word in each.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 36

Delete the incorrect word/s in every sentence and underline the adjectives.

This roast meat meet is not knot cooked properly.

The naughty children have left there their shoes in the garden.

I don't think they're there going out today to the shopping centre.

The little boy buoy loves his teddy bare bear.

The unsettled whether weather is knot not very nice today.

There is a leek leak in the copper pipe.

We could add a leak leak to our hour beef stew.

The good children have gone of off to first school.

I would like sum some more Indian tea tee please.

It is really grate great to too see such a large television screen.

We will stand the new knew gas fire in the great grate.

A tea tee is used when you ewe play golf on a golf course.

Using each of the adjectives write your own sentences.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 37

Delete the incorrect word/s in every sentence and underline the nouns.

The opposite of female is mail male.

The postman delivers our hour male mail.

The see sea is very rough today.

I cannot sea see without my glasses.

Please put that bare bear over their there in the window.

The police have let my friend out on bale bail.

I bought a bale bail of straw for four my pet rabbit.

Please turn the hot tap off of because it is a waste waist of water.

I am trying to loose lose weight wait to get a smaller waist waste.

We get chocolate from a cocoa been bean.

The little girl has been bean to the doctors this morning.

My brother does knot not urn earn very much money.

Using each of the words, write your own sentence and include one word in each.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 38

Delete the incorrect word/s in every sentence and underline the adjectives.

My school friend has now know got grey hare hair.

Do you ewe know no whose who's chocolate biscuits these are?

Whose who's left the front door open.

I need knead to too go out to by bye sum some brown bred bread.

The thick rope is very vary taught taut.

The small children were where all taut taught at infant school today.

We need knead a short coffee brake break.

I would wood like to two meat meet your you're kind mother.

I prefer my red cheese to be coarse course when it is grated.

The golf coarse course was difficult to get round today.

The lounge walls could do with a cote coat of off paint.

The wind blue blew my red balloon away.

Using each of the words, write your own sentence including one word in each.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 39

Delete the incorrect word/s in every sentence and underline the nouns.

Do you now know the weight wait of off the cake?

My friend is called Sue Sew which witch is short for four Susan.

You will fall of off the chair if you ewe don't sit still.

I am enrolling onto a French coarse course.

Please be quite quiet because the baby is asleep.

I would like you to weight wait here hear for four me.

The child blue blew out the candles on the birthday cake.

The baker is busy making the bred bread.

This little village is wear where they maid made the film.

Do you knead need any help to too write right you're your letter.

I think you have put two too much flower flour in this cake.

I am going to sew sue the company and get some money from them.

I wood would like you to put you're your rubbish in the bin

Using each of the words, write your own sentence and include one word in each.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 40

Delete the incorrect word/s in every sentence and underline the verbs.

The tire tyre on you're your bicycle has a puncture.

Do you know now wear where there their parents have gone?

That little baby looks blew blue with cold.

This is a mail male toilet and the female toilet is over their there.

The currant current in the river is very strong today.

I am busy trying to two arrange a bank lone loan.

The children wood would like to too go to the beech beach tomorrow.

The workman is working at the building sight site.

I am writing a draught draft letter and would wood like you to cheque check it for four me.

It wood would help Emily if she read red allowed aloud.

The doctor gave me his advise advice and I will not knot go.

My teddy bare bear has a lose loose eye.

Using each of the words, write your own sentence and include one word in each.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 41

Delete the incorrect words in every sentence and underline the nouns.

Is there their still a mail male train every night?

I have a really bad pane pain in my ears and I cannot here hear properly.

Its It's no good I will not knot be able to tie the knot not taught taut enough.

Please will you cheque check this signature for four me?

I have bean been looking threw through my photographs all day.

That is a very vary large some sum of money to invest.

This house has a very vary big seller cellar wear where we keep our wine.

I have bought brought you're your tea up to the bedroom for four you.

There they're a heard herd of cows in the field near the college.

I have given the assistant a peace piece off of my mind.

We knead need to by buy sum some more flower flour to make the cakes.

Did you here hear that I had herd heard from the bank?

Using each of the words, write your own sentence and include one word in each.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 42

Delete the incorrect word/s in every sentence and underline the verbs.

Wear where have you put your pear pair of gloves?

Now we have cut down all the trees the garden is looking vary very baron barren.

It is about time that they band banned football in our street.

My father is a bell wringer ringer.

The local shop is having a sail sale next week weak.

I wood would like to bye buy a tumble drier dryer.

My son loves to eat the yoke yolk of an egg.

The children love to get lost in the maize maze at Hampton Court.

I do wish you would wood not knot medal meddle in my affairs.

The church has a very vary long isle aisle to walk up.

I think that her babies berth birth is immanent imminent.

That is a navel naval tie that you have just bought brought at the sail sale.

Using each of the words, write your own sentence and include one word in each.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 43

Delete the incorrect word in every sentence and underline the nouns.

Would you ewe like to have a peek peak at the baby?

Thomas is learning to two peddle pedal his bicycle.

Samantha is going to too the gym every day to build up her muscles mussels.

He praise prays every day that he will recover and be well again.

Ashraf is looking very pail pale today.

The cat has got vary very dirty pause paws.

Do you think that the tee tea is brood brewed now?

I would wood like to build billed a garage for my car.

Is it safe to eat that red bury berry off of the tree?

I like to have mustered mustard on my ham sandwiches.

My daughter does not have very much patients patience at the moment.

I think Samuel is just going threw through a faze phase at the moment.

Using each of the words, write your own sentence and include one word in each.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 44

Delete the incorrect word/s in every sentence.

I cannot here hear the music because it is too to quite quiet.

I am making a fruit cake and putting a lot of currants currents in it.

There is a terrible draft draught with the door open.

I wood would love sum some peace piece and quite quiet today.

The next seen scene is the won one in the shopping centre.

The children have broken a pain pane of off glass in the greenhouse.

I wood would like to go four for a walk on the more moor.

Wear where is the scarf that I bought yesterday?

I put my coat cote over their there but it has been bean moved.

I wood would like to have a rest later if that is alright?

I was coffin coughing all night and feel tired tyred today.

I knead need a peace piece of material to make a patch.

Watt what are you doing tomorrow morning mourning?

Using each of the words, write your own sentence and include one word in each.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 45

Insert the correct word into each sentence:

too to two

The little boy was _____ tired _____ go _____ the cinema.

Sophie was going _____ be _____ on Saturday.

We are going _____ the fair, please will you come _____

The refuse collector was going _____ collect the rubbish.

Thomas and Toby are going _____ the gym and Rory is going _____

There are _____ many people in the kitchen.

It was going _____ snow and rain.

There was an offer at the supermarket, three items for the price of _____

Matthew was going to come _____ _____ many people want _____ come _____ the park.

There is room for _____ in my car.

Please can I come _____

There are _____ people coming _____ tea tomorrow.

_____ people are coming _____ see us later.

Toby will be _____ next week and Amelia will be _____

I am going _____ the doctors and Sophie is coming _____

My computer is _____ years old.

The photographer said that he was going to take _____ pictures.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 46

Insert the correct word into each sentence:

too to two

She was _____ hours late arriving _____ meet me.

They were _____ late to catch their train by _____ minutes.

Do not make _____ much noise.

He likes _____ go swimming.

They are going _____ the shops and I am going _____

There is only room for _____ in my car.

The double bed has room for _____ people.

Can I come _____?

She likes _____ go _____ the cinema.

He wants _____ go _____ the cinema _____

I want _____ come _____

There are _____ people waiting _____ see the doctor.

Go _____ the back door please.

My dress has got _____ buttons on the sleeves.

I have _____ ears and can hear very well.

_____ many people go _____ the shops at Christmas time.

I need _____ be able _____ hear the music.

He wants _____ come _____

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 47

Insert:

hear or here.

Come _____ and get your coat on please.

They could not _____ the train.

Can you _____ the birds singing?

There is a cat over _____

He has gone to the doctor because he cannot _____

The book is over _____ if you want to get it.

The old man could not _____ very well.

I want my desk over _____ please.

There is a puddle of water over _____

Did you _____ the fireworks last night?

I can _____ you talking.

I do not want to _____ you again tonight.

Please be quiet and come over _____

Did you _____ the rain in the night?

I came in _____ to _____ the news.

_____ are the answers to the questions.

I cannot _____ what you are saying.

Please come _____ and sit next to me.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 48

Insert:

whose or who's.

_____ dog is that over there?

_____ that man over there?

Here is the girl _____ going to baby sit for us.

Tomorrow we will find out _____ going to be first.

Today we will see _____ coat has been forgotten.

_____ coat is that?

_____ going to make a cup of tea?

_____ going to bed first?

_____ left their socks on the floor?

_____ is going to tidy up?

_____ left in the house?

I do not know _____ coat this is.

I do not know _____ going to play the lead part.

_____ the Prime Minister of England?

_____ the tallest child in the class?

_____ father is going to meet them off the coach?

Do you know _____ going to arrive first?

The man is not sure _____ going to mend his boiler

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 49

Insert the correct word into the following sentences:

whose who's

Thomas is the boy _____ mum lives near to the park.

I do not know _____ going to pay today.

Please can you tell me _____ left their shoes behind?

_____ walking to school with me?

_____ left the door open?

Please can you tell me _____ in the garden?

Rory is the child _____ going into hospital next week.

This is the book _____ author won the prize.

_____ computer are you using today?

_____ cleaning my bedroom this week?

_____ socks are those left on the floor?

We are going to see _____ teacher tomorrow?

Sarah is the little girl _____ cut her hand.

Lucy is the child _____ drawn on the wall.

Do you know _____ having detention today?

She doesn't know _____ coat this is?

If I can't come _____ going to cover for me.

Do you know _____ going to win.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 50

In the following sentences insert one of the following words:

who's whose _____ doing the washing up?

_____ shoes are those under the table?

_____ coming to tea?

_____ putting the kettle on?

_____ making the beds?

_____ looking after your cat?

_____ giving you a lift?

_____ working on the night shift?

_____ class is your brother in?

_____ CD is it?

_____ your best friend?

If you go out _____ looking after Tom?

_____ house is up for sale?

Do you know _____ got detention today?

She doesn't know _____ coat this is.

If I can't come _____ going to cover for me?

Do you know _____ going to win?

_____ making all that noise?

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 51

Insert:

where - were - wear

Did you tell me _____ you are going today?

You cannot _____ that dirty coat.

Do you know _____ Lucy has gone?

How many people _____ at the concert?

I do not know what to _____ to the wedding.

_____ can I find some money?

_____ did you think you _____ going to go?

_____ have the cats gone?

I don't know what you _____ thinking about.

You must _____ a scarf on your head.

Toby and Thomas _____ hungry when they got home.

Do you know what to _____?

You will need to _____ your boots.

_____ did you say you _____ going?

Have you got to _____ that dress?

_____ have you put my keys?

_____ you looking for these shoes?

Did you think that I would let you _____ that short skirt to school?

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 52

Insert:

there, their or they're

The children were putting _____ toys away.

The computer over _____ is a better one.

Please can I have some of that chocolate over _____?

The man was sitting over _____

The girl was putting her books over _____

Please will you stand over _____

The pig was in the field over _____

The teachers' were putting _____ books away.

The birds were singing in _____ nest.

If you walk over _____ you will see _____ house.

The cats were climbing up _____ pole.

The dogs were barking at _____ neighbours.

The rabbits were eating all _____ food.

The man was putting on _____ coats for them.

_____ school is over _____

That lamb over _____ looks poorly.

That suitcase is not _____ only one.

_____ not looking where they are going.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 53

In the following sentences insert one of the words below:

there they're their

Jane is putting her coat over _____ _____ is my mother.

_____ not behaving themselves over _____ today.

The children must tidy up _____ toys.

The builder is going over _____ to price up a job.

Annie and Jodie have eaten all _____ lunch.

Sophie and Lucy must play with _____ toys.

Do you think _____ having enough to eat?

Alfath and Ashraf must eat _____ apples all up.

Up _____ is the park that we go to on a Sunday.

I cannot think where _____ going to put another bed.

Over _____ is where my parents live in that large house.

Sophie and Lucy must make _____ beds.

The shop over _____ is where we buy our bread.

The girls are having _____ hair cut today.

Please will you put _____ coats over _____

The twins have lost _____ money, they should not have left it over _____

What are you doing over _____?

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 54

Insert:

there - their - they're

The boys have put _____ toys away.

Please put my coffee over _____ _____ going to be very late arriving at _____ hotel.

I am going to see Mabel to buy _____ coats for _____ new school.

Have you seen all the cows in the field over _____?

_____ having a party for _____ mother.

_____ train is late arriving today.

_____ is no more room in _____ suitcases for _____ shoes.

_____ having a late night party over _____ tonight.

How can they keep _____ chickens in those cages?

_____ is going to be thunder over _____ later.

We are going to purchase _____ uniform over _____ in the school shop.

How many times are you going over _____

Please put _____ coats over _____ and _____ shoes over here.

Do you think they know what _____ doing?

Over _____ in the garden is that plant that you gave me last year.

Please will you cut _____ hair in the morning?

If _____ coming I think they will sit over _____ in the front row.

Name _____ Date _____

EXERCISE 55

Insert either:

there, their or they're

I am not going _____ today.

_____ not wearing _____ boots.

_____ is a new moon tonight.

I am putting _____ pram over _____ _____ are not many people here today.

Please will you comb _____ hair for me.

I can see your reflection in the mirror over _____

I cannot find _____ favourite teddy bear.

Please put the flowers over _____

The milk should be put over _____

Where are _____ clothes.

_____ not putting _____ coats in the right place.

I cannot find _____ shoes anywhere.

_____ having a fight over the bicycle.

Have you seen _____ gloves, they put them over _____

I cannot see over _____ it is too dark.

_____ not behaving very well because you are _____ friends.

Can you see over _____ alright?